

Curriculum Vitæ of VEKN Paris

Paris VEKN was an informal association of players dedicated to promoting V:TES since 1999 and created by Stéphane Lavrut, Prince of Paris. The activities of the association began back when the game was no longer actively supported by Wizards of the Coast; then Paris VEKN fervently organised on a regular basis a large number of tournaments when White Wolf took over V:TES. In 2000, Paris VEKN can boast to host the largest tournament ever in the world (85 players). This success was dwarfed by the hosting of the 2001 European Championship, attended by 114 players from France, Belgium, Germany, Spain, Italy, Austria, Hungary, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Portugal, USA, England, ... Then the association extended its network of relations to France as a whole by organizing a National Championship structure. We enjoy the regular attendance of players from Belgium and Germany. The association has organized more than 110 tournaments since its creation in 1999!

Paris VEKN (or V:EKN Paris as it is called now) has become a formal association in 2006. It allows us to grant members with some goodies, and eases the organization of big tournaments.

Paris VEKN also maintains a League, with an unofficial League ranking rewarding victories in casual games. This promotes tournament-oriented decks and attitudes without worrying about a formal tournament schedule and structure.

We also had until 2004 a ranking (points award for each tournament played) for all sanctioned tournament attend by French players. At that time, it was not the same as White-Wolf since we considered theirs to be ineffective. We are proud that they finally take up our system. Rankings can be found on WW's website.

We maintain a website including news about tournaments, reports, photo gallery, rules variants and especially a variety of forums attended by players from various regions of France, but also European players (Belgium, Germany, Spain...)

Website: <http://www.veknfrance.com/site/>

Forum: <http://www.veknfrance.com/forum/>

Former website, with results from the past: <http://www.parisvekn.com>

Prize support comes from White Wolf (for sanctioned tournaments, e.g. standard constructed) as well as sponsors: the shops Troll2Jeux and le Repaire du Dragon. Former sponsors were La Guilde des Jeux and Fireball (now closed), Starplayer and the Hexagonal company.

Today, 8 players are officially involved in the association's activities:

Sébastien Rouillard (Prince)

Gaël Matthey (Tremere Primogen)

Sébastien Denouault (Malkavian Primogen, V:EKN Paris Accountant)

Vincent Ripoll (Baali Primogen, V:EKN Paris Secretary, it's me;))

Romain Naïm (Toreador Primogen)

François Vabre (Toreador Primogen)

Benoît Moyen (Primogen)

Jérôme Goyet (Lasombra Archon)

(Primogen or Archons is the same. It is just used to avoid redundancy with clans.)

Former members:

Olivier Perez (VEKN Paris President)

Loïc Gervais (French National Coordinator)

Markhothep, the 7th (Setite Primogen, Prince)

Kamel Senni (Ventrue Primogen, Prince)

Stéphane Lavrut (Prince)

Thierry Baillon (Ventrue Primogen)

Yann Hervy (Gangrel Primogen)

Franck Bernard (Brujah Archon)

Frédéric Pin (Nosferatu Primogen)

Patrice Lascombes (Gangrel Archon)

Jean-Noël Jourdan (Tremere Archon)

Christophe Balthazar (Malkavian Archon)

Patrice Viale

François Alix

Philippe Lang

Sylvain Gogel

Thetmes

These players abandoned the association for a variety of reasons, but gave their contribution to the survival and growth of the game.

Some of them still help us time to time.

Below is the list of tournaments organized by Paris VEKN / V:EKN Paris, as well as the ones already scheduled for 2007. Unsanctioned tournaments usually consist of special formats, either known internationally (Honor the Elders, invented on Google) or home-made (Silence of Death, team-play). Their descriptions are provided on the site (section rules). For old tournaments, the number of players may be forgotten; the name of the winner may not always be found (for example for pre-releases, which is not very important as the goal of these tournaments is focused on discovery rather than winning). “multi” means a multi-judges system was used. As for the locations, La Guilde des Jeux, Ostelen and Crazy Mouse were shops which are now closed, therefore the absence of hyperlink.

As a final note, you may observe that some tournaments are lacking details. The work started by Stone was completed by Anka nearly 5 years later. We managed to retrieve some data from our reports and WW's event calendar, but some is still missing, especially for the 2004-2005 period.

Once a year, the Prince organizes a demo for new players (2000 in Crazy Mouse, 2001 in Crazy Mouse, 2002 in Starplayer, 2003 in Fireball, 2007 at the Ludicité Convention). And, we all help new players each Tuesday at our regular meetings (see the Paris Vekn site and forum for details : www.veknfrance.com/forum).
